POWER POEMS FOR GIRAFFES CONNECTION CARD ACTIVITY INSTRUCTIONS

Find the card Distracted / مشتت الذهن (mush-a-tat ad-nihn) in English and Arabic, then find the matching card with the words Connected / متصل (mu-ta-sil) to practice speaking the words and discussing their meaning.

Try translanguaging! This is using all the languages you know to make a poem about food. Try guessing the meaning of the different words used in the poem Mia Mezzeh!: café sans lait (French) / salsa verde (Spanish) / smorgasbord (Swedish) / mille feuille (French) / mia mezzeh (Arabic) / un banquet (French). What new words did you learn in English and other languages? How could this strategy help you learn new languages?

Find the card Gloomy / අඳුරු (añ-du-ru) in English and Sinhala, then find the matching card with the words Forgiveness / සමාව (sam-ā-va) to practice speaking the words and discussing their meaning.

Find the card Unkind / Obuukodo in English and Luganda, then find the matching card with the words Kind / Ekisa to practice speaking the words and discussing their meaning.

Match the cards to spell the word RESPECT (it will make a train that looks like the one in the book). In this way you will see the hand signs for how to speak in Sign Language, and discuss what it means to respect yourself and others.

The hole in the middle of each card can be used to stack your cards on a spindle. The spindle and cards could be displayed on an easel.
